

15 Gifts to Spice Up Your Christmas

Tony DiLorenzo: Hello, I'm Tony DiLorenzo. And this is my beautiful wife, Alisa. And we're from ONE Extraordinary Marriage, we're excited because we're going to be bringing you 15 Gifts to Spice Up Your Christmas.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Yes. And this is going to be a combination of gifts that are OK to maybe have out with the family on Christmas. And then some others that are going to be just for the two of you, maybe you've got your own stocking that the two of you open, maybe you have your own gifts in your bedroom on Christmas morning. But this is going to be a combination of all the different types of gifts. And we're going to kind of walk you through a few different scenarios, different places and different ways that you might use these gifts. First thing that we're going to do is we're going to talk about setting the atmosphere. So important, like when you walk into your bedroom, that you're creating this place where it just feels like a sanctuary where it screams romance and there are a lot of different ways that you can do it.

Tony DiLorenzo: We're going to start right here right now with these cool flameless candles.

You can see them on there.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Yeah, you can see him on there. Yeah.

Tony DiLorenzo: And what you can do is you can go low, you can go high, you can actually put timers, I mean this little device that they give you with these is fantastic. Like you can get into bed and have these candles set up across your room and then just turn it on or even set it to come on like two to three, four hours from now. So before we go further with the next product, though, I want you guys to know you can get these at www.OneExtraordinaryMarriage.com/AmazonShop. All of these are there. You can pick them up for your loved one. Have some fun, get, you know just to set up that romance for this Christmas for you guys.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Absolutely. Another thing that is so important in the bedroom is the sense of smell. aroma therapy is so big these days with essential oils and things like that.

Tony DiLorenzo: Well depends. Some of you may love it. Some of you may not for those of you who love it, this is perfect.

Alisa DiLorenzo: And so If you don't already have a diffuser for your bedroom, this is a great gift to give at Christmas. They come in all different shapes and sizes they have some now that are just plug in and some that are battery operated. Then you also get to experiment with the different sense that the two of you love. I like the citrus smells. Do you like a minty smell? We found out years ago that we can't put lavender into our diffuser because it will instantly put me to sleep. Yeah, that's an important thing to know when the two of you are trying to get your sexy on. So think about what are those smells that you are using in your room?

Tony DiLorenzo: Yep, third, one of our favorites. And really, everybody should have one of these. It's called the Sound+Sleep Machine. And this little guy makes so much noise within your bedroom, that it drowns out what may be happening when you're making love. One of the great things about this one too, is that it changes volume as the volume in your room changes. So it's a fantastic way to mask it now is it perfect? No. But you know what, for us, it's given us a sense to just be able to go, you know what we can, we can be a little loud in here. Kids aren't going to hear everything. It's good to go. So Sound+Sleep Machine, a must for folks.

Alisa DiLorenzo: And that's one of those things here. And I just want to talk to the ladies for a second. If you're always like, oh, but what if the kids hear us, you need a Sound+Sleep Machine. It will give you that peace of mind and allow you to be fully engaged. And guys, that's a great gift. We know when your wife is fully engaged she's got a whole lot more energy for the two of you.

Tony DiLorenzo: Yeah. Lastly, in the romance department, we got the salt lamp and this thing is as you can see, it's, it's glowing, it's heavy. It really is beautiful. I love this lamp. When we first came across it it just was that perfect glow in our bedroom.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Well, because you all have heard and it's like we've got the flameless candles here too. Everybody looks good in that soft light, everybody does. And there's also that sense of romance that comes from whether it's candlelight or the salt lamps just that soft like orange glow. That just sort of says, You know what, we're kind of warming up here. Right? what's what's about to come. And again, just like the flameless candles, you can set that or turn it on before your love even walks into the bedroom. And then you're like, Okay, you know what they walk in. They're like, I know what's going on here. Yeah, I know what's going on. So those are all items, different items that you can use to create the atmosphere, spice up your atmosphere spice, I like that. Spice up the atmosphere. Now we're going to shift a little bit into things like lubricants and massage oils, because those are also really important. We've often said here at ONE Extraordinary Marriage, that friction is not your friend. And so we want to equip couples to not have to deal with excessive friction.

Tony DiLorenzo: Now with these items, though, this may be more like your secret Santa type of an item like this isn't going to be under the Christmas tree for the kids and grandma, grandpa and the aunts and uncles all to see you open it and be like, Oh, that's interesting. So this may be your own that little Christmas unwrapping that happens. And again, for all of these products, you can go to www.OneExtraordinaryMarriage.com/AmazonShop. They'll be there to pick from and to surprise your love with.

Alisa DiLorenzo: So the first one, this is the Young Living Sensation Massage Oil and you can actually tell we love this one so much that we've worn off the label.

Tony DiLorenzo: We do, this one, this was one of our favorites.

Alisa DiLorenzo: This is the passion scent. Yeah. And this is one I am very sensitive to smell this, this particular oil like every time I smell it, I'm like, okay, we're definitely we're so conditioned. We're having sex. Like if that oil is anywhere in our bedroom, we're having sex and it actually stays right on our nightstand because of the fact that it's super easy to use. It's just that pump dispenser. You can use it as a massage oil, you can use it as a lubricant. It's multi purpose, and that's sense.

Tony DiLorenzo: Yeah, I love the smell of this one, it really has become a favorite of ours. And one that just gets us into that mood. But for you, that's that scent may not work, find the scent that works for you.

Alisa DiLorenzo: So next is Good Clean Love. And this is actually a lubricant that we keep this one in our shower. Because here's the deal.

Tony DiLorenzo: And you could use this one in your bedroom as well. It doesn't have to only be in the shower. It's scentless. Correct. So you don't get any smell from it. But it's a fantastic one that works wonders.

Alisa DiLorenzo: And if you don't know this already, it's okay to have different lubricants in different places of your bedroom, your bathroom. That way, wherever the two of you decide to have sex, you're prepared. Yeah, we hear from so many couples that are like ah, but it's in the bedroom and we're we're in the bathroom or we're in the shower, or we're down to just you know, have it in different places have a couple super easy, super easy. Another one that we really like. This is the Ignite Massage Candle and you can see that there's a wicked side so you can actually light the candle part it heats up the massage oil you put out the candle and then you can see right here it's got this little like pointed spot where you can port and so you could actually pour this onto your love create that wonderful massage romance foreplay experience.

Tony DiLorenzo: I think this one is really good because it does warm up so there is a heat part of it, where it's not super hot that's going to burn you I mean, make sure you test it. But in the winter months, it is one of those lubes or not lubes but an oil sensation that you can use that it's not cold. So it does it freeze you out or your spouse out, you know, I mean, it's warming and it allows that heightened excitement to happen instead of being like, oh shoot, you just poured Sensation oil on me and it's cold and now I'm frigid. And we're not gonna have sex now.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Yeah, that's that's that's not temperature matters. Excuse me. This is actually a Cinnamon Massage Bar. Yep. And so this has got the beans inside, which gives you the whole massage texture thing going on there. But you also have the aromatherapy involved in this cinnamon and here's the thing, if you like scents you've got to experiment with with which ones work best for the two of you to create that romantic, sexually charged atmosphere.

Tony DiLorenzo: Good one with this thing laid on your spouse's body, it melts, you know, let it just let it sit there for a few because just the warmth of the skin will begin to melt it, you can do that put it away. It isn't that tin, the tin can. And I will say when you pull it out.

Alisa DiLorenzo: But that was separate. You don't always have to.

Tony DiLorenzo: You don't have to. But I'm just saying there is a time when like when we're using it that all of a sudden it gets put back in that tin and you sort of hear it or it's like trying to get in the tin and so just be aware of that piece of it.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Another cream that I wanted to make you all aware of it. This is the Julva cream. And as it says I know it's hard to read that tiny print Yeah, there you go. It says cream for our feminine parts. And this is I swear by this.

Tony DiLorenzo: This is one that you ladies may just want to pick up on your own. And in all honesty, this has been a this has been a game changer over the years and especially as Alisa has gotten older.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Absolutely. Because here's the thing. Hormones change, especially around Christmas time, you know, with weather changes and things like that. And so you ladies, you may find that you're just not as naturally lubricated as you want to be and yet you don't want to like you're really sensitive about what you're putting were right I mean, these are girl parts you want to like take care of them Julva cream was actually designed by a gynecologist, a female gynecologist, and this is odorless and tasteless, and yet it takes care of lubricating everything that needs to be lubricated.

Tony DiLorenzo: It is tasteless. I do smell something with it. So Alisa doesn't but I do so I'm just going to give that put that out there but it is tasteless. So in the event, you do put this on prior to sex and your husband does go down you into oral. I've never had any taste that came from it. So boom. Alright, we're going into some games now because hey, why not have some fun when you're going to spice up Christmas with your spouse so yes, number one Sex Stack. This is the game. It's like Jenga, but with sex, it has four different cards. You pull it, you pull out each one. It tells you what to do on the card you get to pick which set you want to use for the game. You pick the one you want to do, and that's what you stick with. The person who pulls out the piece that topples the Sex Stack. I guess is the loser but in all honesty, you guys are both the winner so pick this one up. It has been a highlight one a number one product I would say for most folks in the ONE family when they pick this up, they are all in, they love this product.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Absolutely. Then I think every marriage should actually have its own set of sexy dice. These are, the great thing about sexy dice is you can literally you can toss into your suitcase when you're going on a trip you can have it.

Tony DiLorenzo: Comes in a nice little bag, discreet little bag. It's hard to show these, but I'm going to show you a couple, there's, there's five of them. It's hard to show these.

Alisa DiLorenzo: So talk about it. Like that one has the square has very specific actions, right? So it will say blow or stroke or lick those types of things on there. Then you have this. I don't even know how many shapes as I skipped that part in geometry.

Tony DiLorenzo: I think it's a 10 sided.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Okay, good. So that would be a decagon. But this has body parts you should see things like nipples or fingers or neck. Then you have the other three.

Tony DiLorenzo: That are positions that you can then try as well. And so you add these so you can you get a roll one of these. And whenever it comes up on, that's the position you're going to try so you would start with the first two, maybe for the foreplay part of it. And then you would grab one of these ones, roll it. And there's your position. It does come with a little note card here, sort of pamphlet to help you understand each position that's on here because they are a little small. But hey, it's dice, fun way to change things up. And again, hey, to spice up Christmas, when you do your own little secret Santa, who wouldn't want a little something like this in their stocking, Alisa DiLorenzo: Just as long as your secret Santa knows that he or she is going to bed with you that night, right? Like it's a great thing. It's a great thing. So those are just a couple of toys.

Games.

And games. And so now we just kind of want to move more into the toys. It's one of those things like we're so excited about spicing things up for all of you that I'm like what comes next. So the first thing that we want to show you guys this is an air pulse clitoral stimulator, and this was actually shared by someone else in the ONE family. Sorry, let me put it up here so you can see it's. There are different types of stimulators for women. A lot of us are very familiar with the vibrator and we'll show you one here in just a second but this one, I'm so glad he's here to keep my hand up. This one actually does puffs of air, which is a completely different sensation. It's a different stimulation for women. And I actually this is one of my favorites. And so again, you can always find all everything that we're talking about at our shop at, I think www.OneExtraordinaryMarriage.com/AmazonShop

That's www.OneExtraordinaryMarriage.com/AmazonShop

So that's for her what do we have for him?

Tony DiLorenzo: For him we have what are called penis rings. And these are very interesting to say the least. First time trying them, there's silicon and they're soft and they're awesome to to put on but they they create a constriction around your penis So, what that does is it really does make your ejaculations, more intense. I will say that and you can put on different ones in different places of your penis. So this one comes with three rings. It also comes with a little rabbit one that you can use that goes around your penis in this in this bigger one would go around your scrotum, and then and then some of them even have with a little vibrator ring which you can then put on and then you can put on the vibrator part of it, which you both would feel. Both male, female, husband and wife. Cool product not something that I use it every single time but it was definitely something that I pick up and use at times for our sexual intimacy.

Alisa DiLorenzo: And that's the case with any of these products. We do not bring out this entire buffet every time that Tony and I are going to have sex. That's a lot of stuff. But sharing these with you gives you an opportunity to go oh, what do we want to incorporate this year? What might be fun to try? What would spice things up this Christmas?

Tony DiLorenzo: Well, we change like in the romance department, we showed you the flameless candles and the salt lamp. They both work. It just depends on our mood, what we're doing where we're at, that allows us to choose from different ones. Do they both go on at the same time? No. Does a Sound+Sleep Machine go on every single time? No. Do we use the you know, the dice the Sex Stack? No, but these are just things that we add to our repertoire. So over the course of weeks, months, years, it's just little things that we just add on and we've learned that we enjoy.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Last thing that we want to share for her is, I feel like this is my purple friend, right? This vibrator here that actually has nine different settings. So it's not a one setting fits all, right? If you like different pulses, if you like different vibrations sensations and things like that, you get it all in this one. And you know it's it's again a silicone product and you'll find nowadays that most of the sex toys are in the silicone easy to clean, easy to maintain. So it makes it really easy. Yeah about husband and wife.

Tony DiLorenzo: And this one, you can plug it in. There's no batteries, you plug it in. It's it's waterproof, you can use it in the shower, if you so choose. I will say that this product, a number of these gifts are number one items that those in the ONE family enjoys and us and why we've picked them up and use them as well and are excited for you to pick yours up as you celebrate your Christmas with your loved one.

Alisa DiLorenzo: So we've been going, we've set the atmosphere. We've talked a lubes and massage oils, we've talked about toys, we've talked about games, there's one other thing that we want to share with you guys and that's getting into a piece of furniture. Because sometimes it's like okay, well, like it's our band, like what can we do in our bed you know, after a while you're like I can only put so many pillows up that kind of thing. So I'm going to duck out of the screen for just a second because I got to turn around and pick them.

Tony DiLorenzo: This is something new that Alisa and I have picked up to enhance our own sexual intimacy and truly it is one of the coolest things. It's called the Liberator Flip Wedge.

Alisa DiLorenzo: Now I want to like actually pick this up. Okay, so from the side, you can't it just looks like a cube. It actually sits in our bedroom as a footstool to a chair that we have. But the beauty of it is, it opens up.

Tony DiLorenzo: We're going to go this way because it's long boom and we're going to go like that.

Alisa DiLorenzo: There you go. So you can see it's a wedge. It has the curved side. Actually, if you can lift that up, the curved side is closer to Tony, it swoops down which creates this lip on this side.

Tony DiLorenzo: Yeah, boom. So it's, it's a flip wedge. And here's the thing. What we found is there's a number of different wedges out there. The thing is, is that they can be big, where do you store them? Especially if like kids come in, what do you do with it? And so when we found this one, we were like, Oh my goodness, let's give this one a try. And because of the way it works, it honestly just sits at the foot of a chair in our bedroom. And you would never know. It's great, kids walk in, they sit on it, move on, it's a microfiber cover and you can pull that off, you can wash it, but I am telling you even getting into missionary position, changes things up when you throw a wedge into the equation. So if you're looking to go all out and really spice it up this Christmas, make sure you grab that wedge and again you can grab any of these gifts at www.OneExtraordinaryMarrige.com/AmazonShop.

Alisa DiLorenzo: We're hoping that you'll take the time this Christmas, this holiday season to go Okay, you know what, what is one or two things that we could incorporate this year? Just think through, do we want to look at atmosphere? Do we need new lubes this year? Do we want to incorporate some new toys? Christmas is a great time to do that little extra something that's just between you and your spouse. Again, like we said it doesn't have to be a Christmas present that sits out there next to the Lego set and the cooking set, right do something that's just for the two of you have a couple of gifts in your bedroom on Christmas morning just for husband and wife. And then look at what starts to shift as you head into the next year because you had that little special time for just the two of you.

Tony DiLorenzo: Yep. So enjoy them! Again go to www.OneExtraordinaryMarrige.com/AmazonShop. We love you guys enjoy and even let us know what are you going to pick up for your loved one this holiday season. Love you guys.
